Prevention and treatment veteran joins Hamilton County
Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services Board

CINCINNATI – The Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services (ADAS) Board announces John Roberts has joined the board as coordinator of evaluation services.

A resident of Mt. Airy, Roberts brings more than 30 years of service in the field to ADAS. His experience is in providing treatment, training and consultation in addiction services. For the last 17 years, Roberts has served as an adjunct faculty member in the addiction studies program at the University of Cincinnati.

Roberts is also past president of the Ohio Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors and past commissioner on the National Certification Commission of the National Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors.

“We are excited about the experience that John Roberts is bringing to the ADAS Board,” said Dr. Sherry Knapp-Brown, CEO of the ADAS Board. “He knows the county and its treatment and prevention resources and services very well.”

About the Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services (ADAS) Board

The Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services (ADAS) Board (<http://www.hamilton-co.org/adas/>) plans, funds, and evaluates public alcohol, drug and gambling addiction treatment, prevention, and education services for the citizens of Hamilton County. The Hamilton County Board of Commissioners established the ADAS Board in 1989, following the passage of House Bill 317.
