Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services
New Board Members Appointed

CINCINNATI, OHIO -- (August 28, 2001) Five new board members were recently appointed to the Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services (ADAS) Board of Trustees by the Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services and the Hamilton County Board of Commissioners. The following new trustees have been appointed to the Board:

Deliann Gettler, president of Trusthouse, Inc. and an active community volunteer, is a resident of Cincinnati. White Bourland, retired senior vice president for operations of Enoxy Coal Company, is a resident of Kenwood. Thomas Brackman, senior project manager of Compuware Corporation, is a resident of Mount Healthy. Robert Cantlon, psychiatric inpatient social worker at the University of Cincinnati, is a resident of College Hill. Marsha Straus, compliance manager at the Ohio Board of Nursing in Columbus, is a resident of Loveland.

The Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services Board plans, funds and evaluates public alcohol and drug treatment, prevention and education services for the citizens of Hamilton County. The Hamilton County Board of Commissioners established it as a separate alcohol and drug addiction services board in 1989, following the passage of House Bill 317.
