Cincinnati Public Schools teacher joins Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services Board

CINCINNATI—The Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services (ADAS) Board (<http://www.hamilton-co.org/adas/>) recently appointed Gwendolyn R. Womack to its Board of Trustees.

Gwendolyn Womack is a teacher with Cincinnati Public Schools and a resident of Forest Park. Throughout her career, Ms. Womack has volunteered as an advocate for various substance abuse prevention and treatment programs, and was involved with the Northside Community Council for 19 years.

About the Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services Board

The Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services (ADAS) Board plans, funds, and evaluates public alcohol and drug treatment, prevention, and education services for the citizens of Hamilton County. The Hamilton County Board of Commissioners established the ADAS Board as a separate alcohol and drug addiction services board in 1989, following the passage of House Bill 317.
