

Planning and Zoning Commissioners 2010 Training

The Planning Partnership—Hamilton County Regional Planning Commission

Issued 12/17/2009

The Certified Planning and Zoning Commissioners' Program is designed for commissioners interested in acquiring basic knowledge to perform his/her role.

The course reviews and reinforces basic principles of planning, zoning, legal and ethical issues, meeting management and facilitation skills through presentation, in class discussion, and hands on exercises. Participants will receive reference material in digital format.

In 2010 the program is offered as five evening sessions. Each session has been designed as a stand alone seminar.

Those who attend all five sessions will receive a certificate from the University of Cincinnati – School of Planning and the Hamilton County Regional Planning Commission.

All sessions will be at the Blue Ash Recreation Center from 5:30 pm—8:00 pm except the Site Plan Review Session that is from 5:30—8:30 pm. Dinner is included.
